Experience

Frontend Web Developer

QUH Dock

Dec 2023 - Present (5 months)

Exceeded in a part-time remote role as a Frontend Web Developer, harnessing expertise in popular frontend framework, e.g., React, Angular, or Vue.js to craft dynamic, user-centric interfaces. Thrived in the flexibility of remote work, seamlessly integrating with the team to deliver impactful solutions while balancing other commitments. Collaborated effectively across time zones, adeptly managing tasks and deadlines to create visually stunning, responsive designs that elevated user experiences. This opportunity not only deepened technical proficiencies but also sharpened remote communication, time management, and the ability to contribute meaningfully in a distributed, part-time capacity

Productions Operator

Badger Meter

Jun 2023 - Present (11 months)

As a Production Operator at Badger Meter, my responsibilities include precision soldering, thorough testing of products, adept gluing techniques, and specialized hard plastic bonding. This role involves ensuring product quality, adhering to procedures, and collaborating within a team to maintain efficient manufacturing processes.

Frontend Web Developer

QUH Dock

Jun 2023 - Nov 2023 (6 months)

Thrived in a dynamic remote internship role as a Frontend Developer, contributing innovative solutions and immersive user experiences using cutting-edge technologies. Leveraged frontend framework, e.g., React, Angular, or Vue.js to craft responsive, visually stunning interfaces that enhanced functionality and drove user engagement. Collaborated seamlessly with cross-functional teams, engaging in agile methodologies to swiftly iterate, test, and implement high-impact features. Transformed designs into seamless code, mastering the art of efficient and maintainable development practices. This experience not only honed technical skills but also fostered a deep appreciation for remote collaboration, time management, and adaptive problem-solving in a fast-paced, distributed work environment.
